The admission to Ph.D. programme will be done in order of merit and subject to availability of seat(s) and expert(s) for guidance/supervision in the area of research. Before submission of application form, the candidate is required to ascertain these facts from the concerned Department/Institute.
2.7	The candidate(s) pursuing M.Phil. Course, if otherwise eligible, may submit his/her application form for admission to Ph.D. course. The admission of candidate shall be considered provisionally if his/her M.Phil. Dissertation has been got evaluated and viva-voce is pending. His/her case for Ph.D. registration will be recommended to the PGBOS of the concerned Department/Institute after viva-voce examination and successful completion of M.Phil. Course.
2.8	After approval of the research topic by the concerned Board of Studies, the full time Research Scholar shall have to stay for a minimum period of Two years (including field work) in the concerned Department/Institute at Kurukshetra University or at Institute/college recognized by the University (See Appendix) to pursue his/her research work. One year shall be considered as minimum 180 days. However, in exceptional genuine cases, DRAC may recommend the relaxation in minimum stay condition on the request of the candidate, duly recommended by the supervisor, to the PGBOS for its approval. Provided further that such relaxation can't exceed 90 days in total.

2.8.1	All research scholars, who are getting any kind of fellowship/scholarship/stipend or financial aids for doing Ph.D., shall have to mark their attendance regularly in the department/college/institute subject to leave rules of funding Agencies/University.
2.8.2	The Research Supervisor of the Research Scholar shall maintain the attendance record of stay period of the full time/part time Research Scholar in respective Department/Institute. For part time scholars, Supervisor will submit that requisite contact hours (i.e. 90 hours per semester) at Kurukshetra University campus are fulfilled.
2.8.3	Fulfillment of stay condition shall be certified by the Research Supervisor of the Research Scholar on the basis of attendance record maintained by the Research Supervisor in the Form for Appointment of Examiners for Verification of Particulars as required under Clause 15.5.
3.	Procedure of Admission
3.1	Kurukshetra University shall notify predetermined total seats to be filled up by each Department/Institute. The Staff Council of the Department/Institute will recommend the predetermined seats (Subject/Specialization and category wise) for Ph.D. Admission subject to availability of experts for guidance, supervision in the area of research. Haryana State Reservation policy, published by the University in the HBI of the University and instructions from time to time, will apply for deciding category wise seats. At any point of time, a teacher who is eligible to supervise Ph.D. candidate, should have minimum 50% of the sanctioned intake for that teacher. In the subsequent years, 50% of vacant seats should be declared vacant for admission to Ph.D. course by the teacher. Provided further that the above condition for minimum number of vacant seats shall not be applicable for a teacher whose retirement is due in 2 years.
3.2	A candidate may apply for admission to Ph.D. Course in the main subject (in which he/she has passed his/her Master's Degree) as well as allied subjects, if any. A list of concerned allied subjects duly recommended by the Departmental Research Advisory Committee, Deans' Committee and approved by the Vice-Chancellor shall be placed at the University website.
3.3	Part time candidates will apply against seats available for part time Ph.D. and admission will be given in order of merit subject to fulfillment of eligibility conditions.
3.4	The candidate shall apply online for admission on the University website or in a manner prescribed by the University from time to time.
3.5	The Application Forms along with required Fee shall be submitted online by the last date as notified by the University. After last date, if permitted the Application Form can be submitted along with a late fee as prescribed and notified by the University.
3.6	For the Application Form for admission to Ph.D. Programme where result of qualifying exam has been declared late, the candidate may submit a copy of Detailed Marks Card (DMC) of main/ allied subject with grand total or copy of any other required document as per schedule notified, failing which his/her Application Form for admission to Ph.D. course will not be considered.
4.	Duration
4.1	Ph.D. course shall be for a minimum duration of 03 (Three) years for scholars including coursework and a maximum of 06(Six) years from the date of admission to the Ph.D. programme.

4.2	Every Research Scholar shall submit his/her thesis within a period of 06 (Six) years from the date of his/her enrolment for Ph.D. Course, but not before 03 (Three) years including coursework. If a Research Scholar fails to submit his/her thesis within a period of 06 (Six) years, his/her registration will stand automatically cancelled (subject to Clauses 4.3, 4.4 & 4.5).
4.3	The period of 06 (Six) years for submission of Ph.D. thesis by a Research Scholar may be extended on the recommendations of the DRAC and Standing Committee, in exceptional cases, with an extra fee as prescribed and notified by the University time to time. A maximum of an additional 02 (Two) years on yearly basis can be given through a process of re-registration; provided, however, that the total period for completion of a Ph.D. programme should not be exceed 08 (Eight) years from the date of admission in the Ph.D. programme.
4.4	Provided further that, female Ph.D. scholars and persons with disabilities (having more than 40% disability) may be allowed an additional relaxation of 02 (Two) years on yearly basis; however, the total period for completion of a Ph.D. programme in such cases should not be exceed 10 (Ten) years from the date of admission in the Ph.D. programme.
4.5	In exceptional circumstances, on the recommendation of the Standing Committee on Research, the Vice-Chancellor may grant an extension for the submission of the Ph.D. thesis beyond the maximum duration specified—i.e., beyond 08 (Eight) years for general candidates or 10 (Ten) years for female Ph.D. scholars and persons with disabilities (having more than 40% disability). Such an extension shall be granted only after careful consideration of the merits of the case, and subject to the payment of an additional fee as may be prescribed and notified by the University from time to time.
4.6	The woman Research Scholar may be allowed Maternity Leave/Child Care Leave for upto 240 days in the entire duration of Ph.D. Course which shall not be counted in the stipulated period of 6 (Six) years for submission of Ph.D. thesis, subject to production of maternity certificate from a registered Nursing Home/ Govt. Hospital and the Child Care Leave may be allowed to the woman Research Scholar for her child upto the age of 10 years on valid grounds with documentary proof. 1. Maternity leaves/ Child Care Leave may be combined with leave of any kind admissible to Research Scholar. Maternity and Child Care leave will not lead to exemption of coursework including attendance and mandatory stay period. 2. Maternity leave also be granted to Research Scholar in case of miscarriage, including abortion, subject to the condition that the leave, applied for, does not exceed 6 weeks and the application is supported by a medical certificate. 3. Research Scholar shall apply for Child Care leave in advance through Chairperson forwarded by the Guide for approval of competent authority.
4.7	In case of relocation of woman Research Scholar due to marriage or otherwise, the research data shall be allowed to be transferred to the University to which the scholar intends to relocate or vice-versa , provided all the other conditions in these regulations are followed in a letter and spirit and the research work does not pertain to the project secured by the parent institution/ research supervisor from any funding Agency. The Research Scholar will, however, give due credit to the Research Supervisor and the parent institution for the part of research work already done. Such Research Scholar will also be eligible for University Scholarship. The submission of thesis by the Research Scholar shall be as per provisions of Ph.D. Ordinance of K.U.K.
