

Direction: Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions (Q. Nos. 1 to 5) choosing the correct alternatives :

Children should be educated without pressure. They should enter into adulthood free from the damaging effects of tradition and fear. Free expression of thought should be given to the children. A child once asked Krishnamurthy, "Is it your hobby to give lectures ? Don't you get tired of talking ? Why are you doing it ?" Krishnamurthy replied : "I am glad you asked these questions. You know, if you love something, you never get tired of it. I mean love in which there is no desire of wanting something out of it. If you are talking because you are getting something out of it : money, reward, sense of your importance : then there is weariness. Then it has no meaning because it is only self-fulfillment, but if there is love in your heart, it is like a fountain, always giving fresh water."

Many millions of people in city slums reside in makeshift dwellings made with wattle and clay, garbage bags and polythene sheets. However, they are not so unlucky as the large number of people who live in the streets. There are many reasons for this malaise. Impoverishment of rural peasantry forces people to move out of villages to seek their livelihood in the towns and cities. Many of them are ragpickers and some of them work as manual labourers. Some of them earn money as street vendors. Women mostly work as maids in houses. They find the slums of cities a far better place than their own villages due to extreme poverty there. Moreover, unemployment is the other prominent reason for migration to the city slums. Exploitation under the feudalistic society of the rural India is another reason why people are forced to leave their land of birth. But due to illiteracy the migrants are not able to get good jobs in the city and remain poor.
