- a. A morning in a park
- b. Attending an Indian wedding
- c. Gender bias in our society
- d. Better late than never

Case Sensitivity: No

Answer :

Possible Answer: NA

Given A morning in a park Last month , I went to Delhi for an examination. The exam was scheduled in evening shift. I reached there early in the morning. I went to a park nearby. It was the time of sunrise, the birds were chirping, fresh air is blowing in the garden. The garden was well maintained by the Delhi Development Authority. It was sunday that day, so most of the residents of nearby colony gathered in the park . Senior citizens start their morning walk, youngsters starts running and exercises, children starts playing different games and most of persons start doing Yoga, as it is becoming globally popular . There was a instructor, who is instructing the Yoga techniques to the people doing Yoga. I also started doing Yoga there. By doing certain "Breathing Techniques" some "Asanas" , i filled relaxed and full of energy. All my tiredness gone, and i feeled so fresh. Then, after some time, I went towards the examination centre nearby. I attended the exam with full energy. After that day ,I am practicing Yoga everyday in our colony garden. It gives a great start to the day and one fills fresh all day. It should be adopted by everyone to be physically and mentally fit.

Q.3 Write a precise of the following paragraph in not more than 1/3 number of words of the whole passage. Also give an appropriate title.

Media is considered to be the fourth Pillars of Democracy. The role of media is to ensure that the people are aware of the social, economic, political developments taking place around them. In performing its role in spreading information, media also plays a pivotal function in creating public opinion. Public opinion is an amalgamation of opinions, views, beliefs, and attitudes of individuals on a particular subject matter, voiced by a comparatively significant segment of the society. Human nature is such that it makes them eager to know about their surroundings, the tendency of being informed. Such nature makes them rely upon and getting influenced by the information that they receive without critically thinking about the authenticity of the information. Many times the information providers not only tell the bare information but also state their opinion along with it. Thus, the media including news channels, internet, newspapers, etc. have the power of changing people's perspectives on an issue in hand. It holds significance in a democracy as a positive public opinion on any subject would mean legitimization and validation from the public.
