Q85. Why has the Lord Mayor pledged a reassessment of fire-safety rules?

Read the passage and answer the questions:

“It is with profound sorrow that we announce a devastating blaze which, just before dawn on Sunday, gutted a substantial portion of the renowned Borough Market. Despite the fire crews battling relentlessly throughout the night, a fierce easterly wind drove the flames forward, rapidly consuming numerous stalls and storage areas. Traders and residents looked on helplessly as the marketplace suffered extensive damage. Preliminary reports indicate that the fire may have been triggered by careless handling of a lantern, though officials continue to investigate the precise cause. The Lord Mayor has pledged a thorough reassessment of fire-safety regulations to avert such calamities in the future.”
