Comprehension:

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

In W. W. Jacobs' story, 'The Monkey's Paw', a mysterious talisman grants its owner three wishes, but each comes with unintended consequences. The White family receives the paw from Sergeant-Major Morris, who warns them of its dangerous magic. Driven by curiosity and desire, Mr White makes a wish for money, which is granted through a tragic accident involving their son, Herbert. The family's grief and fear grow as they realise the paw's power is cruel and unpredictable. When Mrs White attempts to use the paw to bring Herbert back, the result is terrifying and almost unimaginable. Jacobs explores themes of fate, greed, and human desire to control destiny, showing how seemingly small choices can lead to devastating outcomes. The story's suspenseful tone and moral lesson warn readers about interfering with forces beyond their understanding.
