Daily Current Affairs Encyclopedia

- Perini Sivatanam, also known as Perini Thandavam, is an ancient dance form from Telangana
- It flourished during the reign of the Kakatiya dynasty (1083-1323 AD).
- Originally performed by warriors before setting off to battle, it is now recognized as a vibrant cultural heritage expression.
- The dance is an offering to Lord Shiva, the Hindu god of destruction and regeneration, seeking his blessings and strength for victory.
- The movements are vigorous and fast-paced, mimicking the movements of warriors in battle..
- Traditionally, Perini Sivatanam was performed by men. However, in recent years, women have also started participating in the dance.
- The dance is typically accompanied by a strong and rhythmic beat played on drums like dhol, daphu, and chenda.
